Heard the Parties.

The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in connection with Cyber Crime (Bishrampur) P.S. Case No. 07 of 2018, for the offences under Sections 419/420/120(B) of the Indian Penal Code and Sections 66(C)/66(D) of the Information Technology Act, 2000, pending in the Court of learned Special Judge, Cyber Crime-cum-Additional Sessions Judge-II, Palamau.

Counter affidavit has been filed. Let the same be kept on record.

Rs.1,48,500/- were fraudulently withdrawn from the account of the informant Ramsharan Yadav. Rs.30,000/- from the said amount was deposited in the account of this petitioner.

It appears from paragraph-30 of the case diary that the petitioner withdrew Rs.30,000/- through Bank ATM. It further appears that when the informant confronted her, she promised to return the amount, however, she changed her residence in order to avoid payment to the informant.

The entire facts of this case manifests guilty intention of the petitioner.

Considering the aforesaid facts, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on Anticipatory Bail, accordingly, the prayer for Anticipatory Bail of the petitioner stands rejected.
